Our services are most rewarding and we invite all parishioners (with variety of ages and abilities) to join us in our mission to bring Christ out into our community. Today's Gospel invites us to reflect on the theme of salvation. Jesus is going up from Galilee to the city of Jerusalem, and along the way, says St. Luke the Evangelist, someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" (13:23). Jesus did not answer the question directly: it is not important to know how many are saved, but rather, it is important to know what is the path of salvation. And so Jesus responds to the question by saying, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough" (v. 24).

What does Jesus mean? What is the gate by which we enter? And why does Jesus speak about a narrow gate? The image of the gate recurs several times in the Gospel and is reminiscent of home and hearth, where we find safety, love and warmth. Jesus tells us that there is a gate that allows us to enter into God's family, into the warmth of the house of God, of communion with Him. This gate is Jesus himself (cf. Jn 10:9). He is the gate.

He is the gateway to salvation. He leads us to the Father. And the gate that is Jesus is never closed, this gate is never closed, it is always open and open to everyone, without distinction, without exclusions, without privileges. Because, you know, Jesus does not exclude anyone.

Some of you might say to me, "But Father, surely I am excluded, because I am a great sinner. I have done so many things in my life." No, you are not excluded! Precisely for that reason you are preferred, because Jesus prefers the sinner, always, in order to pardon him, to love him. Jesus is waiting for you, to embrace you, to pardon you. Don't be afraid: He's waiting for you. Be lively, have the courage to enter through His gate. All are invited to pass through this gate, to pass through the gate of faith, to enter into His life, and to allow Him to enter into our life, because He transforms it, renews it, the gifts of full and lasting joy.

Thank you St. Mary's for wrapping your arms around us in the lost of our grandson Michael. For the many cards, mass cards and prayers we thank you. The reception after the service was so thoughtful and nice. Keep us in your prayers. St. Mary's church family is great.
